POLLING PLACE FOR PRECINCT #52 CHANGED
TO UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR NOV. 2 ELECTION

MISSOULA--

The Student Action Center (SAC), an agency of the Associated Students of the University of Montana, has announced that the polling place for precinct #52, which includes the UM main campus, has been moved to the University Center (UC) Ballroom for the general election Tuesday, Nov. 2.

Polling for precinct #36, which includes UM family housing on the south portion of the campus, will be held in the Elliott Village Clubhouse.

Roberta Frank, elections supervisor of the Missoula County Elections Department, said for precinct #52 that the polling place/has been moved to the UC Ballroom on a tentative basis. If enough voter interest is shown during Tuesday's election, the polling place will remain permanently in the UC Ballroom. Local school elections will be held at the Elliott Village Clubhouse.

SAC will provide information about precincts, voter registration and other questions regarding voting. Interested persons may visit the SAC, located in room 105 of the UC, or phone 243-2451.
